

MISSIONARIES of the PRECIOUS BLOOD

WEEKEND DISCERNMENT RETREAT

Prayer • Conversation • Community

A time to reflect on the gifts you bring to the world.

March 9–11, 2012

St. Charles Center, Carthagena, Ohio

A discernment retreat is a time to come and see what life might be like in a religious community. It's a time to take a deep breath and really think about your relationship with God and where God might be calling you. You'll spend time with others who are thinking about the same questions – you'll find you're not alone.

Priests and brothers will be on hand to talk about their lives and their own call – and to help you see the gifts that God has put into your hands that you might use to serve others.

Our presenter will be Fr. Steve Dos Santos, C.P.P.S.

Can't make the March dates?

Next discernment retreat: October 26–28, 2012

The retreat takes place at St. Charles Center, the motherhouse of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, in Carthagena, Ohio.

- We provide meals and lodging, and we can help you get there if you don't have a way.
- It begins with dinner on Friday and ends after lunch on Sunday.
- There will be time during the retreat to talk with formation directors, candidates in formation and others in our Community. There is no pressure and no commitment (other than telling us you'll be there).

The Missionaries of the Precious Blood are a worldwide congregation of priests, brothers and lay associates who believe in the power of the Blood of Jesus to save the world. Through their many ministries they promote God's reconciliation and peace for all, especially the lost, lonely, poor and forsaken.
